24 Hour Cancellation Policy

StretchWorks requires 24-hours notice of a cancellation before the scheduled in-person or virtual session. StretchWorks and Alexandra Rose reserve the right to charge the full session price for late cancellations or missed appointments. Rescheduled appointments with less than 24-hour notice must be rescheduled for the same day, if there is an open session available, in order to avoid cancellation charges. This policy provides Alexandra Rose protection as an independent contractor, as well as the client accountability to follow through with their scheduled sessions.
